

Graphical Zmanim Clockfaces

Designed as token of appreciation for MyZmanim by

The clockfaces below make it possible to navigate zmanim without the need to translate to Shaos Zmaniyos.

It is my hope that these clockfaces will aid those who seek to understand how zmanim work, and that even those who are taken in by their beauty will walk away with a greater appreciation of Zmanim.

Contents

- Sundial Clockfaces
- Fixed Shaos Zmanios Clockfaces
- Fluctuating Shaos Zmanios Clockfaces

The Sundial Clockface shows the sun emerging from behind the Earth and following a circular path to Shkiah. This depicts the movement of time in the most natural way.

The Fixed Shaos Zmanios Clockface combines the sundial's imagery with a more typical clockface, better for getting an overview of the whole day, but with strong visuals.

The Fluctuating Shaos Zmanios Clockface is less visual, but includes greater detail. This clockface varies in length of the hours in sync with the length of the Shaos Zmanios of the given date. It also features a special "Chalakim" hand, like the minute hand on a classic timepiece.
